(Accredited as 'B' Grade College by NAAC)

Permanently Affiliated to Gauhati University

SECTION-I

01. INTRODUCTION

Lalit Chandra Bharali College established on 9th August, 1971 and situated at easily accessible location was started at the initiative of the neighbourhood and the generous financial help of the donor after whom the college is named. It was established to cater to the needs of the students of the periphery areas of Guwahati in particular and the state as a whole. The college is situated at the Eastern boundary of the N.F. Railway H.Q. and at the foothills of the Nilachal Hills— the abode of the Goddess Kamakhya. The site of the College with the beautiful Nilachal and Adingiri Hills which once served as the Western Gate of the Mighty Ahoms, provide an ideal environment of peace and serenity for both teaching and learning.

The College is situated hardly 3 K.M. away from Adabari Bus Stand, 5 K.M. from the Gauhati University, 7 K.M. from the Guwahati Railway Station and is easily approachable from all sides.

The college offers two streams namely Arts and Science and is permanently affiliated to the Gauhati University, registered under UGC (i)-2-F (ii) 12 B since 1994 and is also a member of the Indian College Forum. The college also has a Higher Secondary Section in Arts, affiliated to the AHSEC. The college has recently been accredited by the NAAC as 'B' Grade Institution for 5 years.

The Arts stream of the college came under the Deficit grant in Aid System of the Govt. of Assam in September, 1983. The Science stream, started in 1995 is managed by the college itself. The Arts faculty of the college is imparting teaching in both HS and TDC courses in Arts while the faculty of Science is engaged in imparting teaching in Science and Technology.

02. GOAL :

Pursuit of Excellence is an institutional goal for the college. Quest for excellence in curricular and extra curricular activities, sports, dramatics, arts & culture is a continuous process for the college.

03. AIMS & OBJECTIVES :

- (1) To impart higher education to the eligible youths in general and SC,

ST and OBC in particular.

- (2) To lay emphasis on teaching and research in non-traditional areas avoiding duplication of facilities available in other Colleges.
- (3) To facilitate innovative methods of teaching and learning to meet the requirements of changing times.
- (4) To promote among the students and teachers an awareness and understanding of the social needs of the state and prepare them for fulfilling such needs.
- (5) To make conscious effort to promote ideas of national integration, secularism, a scientific outlook and a cosmopolitan and a humanistic approach towards life.
- (6) To arrange remedial teaching for the upliftment of the students of the weaker section.
- (7) To impart training in Games and Sports, Music, Art and Culture.
- (8) To work for preservation and dissipation of art and culture.
- (9) To periodically update curricular aids to avoid obscence in academic activities.
- (10) To underline the importance of extension education as an additional dimension of the teaching learning process.

SECTION-IV

01. CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AND EXTENSION EDUCATION PROGRAMME :

The College considers extension work as the third dimension of the institution and regards it to be as important as the other two dimensions namely teaching-learning and research. This is due to the consideration that extension activities are beneficial in inculcating a sense of dedication to social upliftment and accountability among students. Hence, the college has taken up extension education with its own fund plus financial assistance received sometimes from Gauhati University. These activities are carried out through the NSS unit of the college. This is due to the consideration that extension activities are beneficial in inculcating a sense of dedication to social upliftment and accountability among students.

Type of Extension Works :

- Academic Extension Activities : Organisation of departmental lectures, seminars with the involvement of all the teachers & students so that interdisciplinary knowledge can transmit to teachers & students.
- Extension through Awareness : Awareness on Environment (National Environmental Awareness Campaign)
 Awareness of primary health, drug abuse, AIDS, Blood donation etc. inside and outside of the college campus.

- National Service Scheme (NSS) : The NSS is voluntary organisation of College students under the Union Ministry of Human Resource Development established during 1985 to inculcate social consciousness and a sense of responsibility, discipline and dignity of labour among the youth. The College Unit of the NSS is vibrant with activities and takes up a number of health-education programmes each year under the guidance of the Project Officer Mr. Bijoy Kamal Bhattacharyya.
- National Cadet Corps (NCC) : The NCC is a national organisation which has helped in inculcating a spirit of courage, confidence, self-reliance, selfless service, a feeling of patriotism, faith in oneself, power of thought and adjustment which are essential to make the youth disciplined and dutiful. The college is attached to the 50 Assam Air Sqn. (Flg.) NCC for NCC activities under the leadership of Mr. Bikash Bhargab Sarma.
- Appreciation of Arts : The college organises programmes such as Folk Festival, Music, Dance, Drama and Painting workshop cum seminars to help students and teachers develop a sence of appreciation of arts and culture. These are also organised with the aim of creating an awareness about traditional art and culture and its preservation. Besides these the college has a few associations for co-curricular activities like— Sahitya Chora, Economics Forum, History & Political Science Forum and so on through which various activities like Seminars, Extension Lectures, Surveys etc. are carried out periodically.
- L. C. B. College Science Society : The college has a Science Forum namely "L. C. Bharali College Science Society" which is an institutional branch of the Assam Science Society. The LCBCSS undertake various activities round the year for the nourishment of the scientific temper and for promotion and advancement of the cause of Science particularly in applied branches.
- News Bulletin : The college has also a half yearly News Bulletin and yearly News Bulletin on Environment, namely Paribesh Sambad (Environment News). The Departments of History & Political Science jointly publishes a Histro-Political Journal.
- Suggestion Box : Any suggestion from students/parents/guardians/ well wishers related to development of the college may be provided through the suggestion box. The box is opened and the suggestions analysed by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of the college.
- Student's Feedback Form : Students of all classes are asked to provide their comments regarding teaching/learning/evaluation (teacherwise) through a Feedback Form which is analysis by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of the college.

L.C.B. COLLEGE AS SEEN BY DISTINGUISHED GUESTS

We are very glad to visit the L. C. Bharali College, Maligaon, one of the few colleges in the city to give emphasis to non-traditional, vocational type of courses. We found great amount of enthusiasm both among the teachers and the students for the pursuit of their studies and they are getting correct leadership from the Principal and other authorities. We wish the college all success.

Beautiful campus, warm hospitality, innovative teaching programme, a dynamic Principal— this is how one can sum up the 'ambience' of the college. We greatly enjoyed our brief stay here. Wishing the institution of glorious future.

Mohit Bhattacharjee
Former V.C.
Bardhaman University

It is with great pleasure we visited this college. Without seeing it and its various departments I could never have perceived the innovative activities a college can undertake with its limited resources. I am truly impressed and wish a very successful future for the students and the teachers of this college. I will relate my experience here for benefit of others—the colleges and students of my University.

Namita Choudhury

Deptt. of Sociology & Social Anthropology
North Bengal University

I am impressed by the Principal's interest in the institution and his thoughtful plans for development of the college. It seems he is successful in eliciting the co-operation of the staff. I hope of proper spirit of enquiry, independent and objective, will develop in the college leaving a permanent mark on the minds on its students.

Hirendranath Gohain

Dean of Arts
Gauhati University

I have been very impressed by the organisation of seminar on history by the Lalit Chandra Bharali College by the initiative and efforts of Principal Choudhury. I wish a few more college would take such an initiative. I has also been most interesting to interact with historians of the North-Eastern India and much that was discussed is likely to be very useful to perspective of the history of India. I also like to record my deep appreciation of the kindness, courtsey and care with which we have been looked after.

Prof. Ramila Thapar

The change is the progress I am truly amazed to find the L. C. B. College in move. The changes taking place in it since my last visit in November 1995, is the signal of your leadership to the academies of this illustrious institution. With all the best wished and luck.
