

.

Metric 6.2.2.

The Principal, two faculty members, non-teaching staff, guardian members, and designated representatives from the university make up the college's Governing Body. It is the decision-making body and is also responsible for overseeing the execution of the policies and decisions that it has occasionally authorized.

All plans and policies are carried out by the Governing Body's Principal cum Secretary.

The HOD, who is a rotating position is held by the senior faculty member, oversees the academic departments.

An important part of evaluating and guaranteeing quality in the teaching-learning and assessment process is the college's IQAC.

The librarian, the library assistant, and the lower-level employees make up the library's organizational structure.

The administrative staff plays a crucial supporting role in the college's daily operations.

The purpose of statutory bodies such as internal committees, grievance redressal cells, and anti-ragging committees is to guarantee the welfare of all parties involved.

The union of college students at LCB is chosen democratically.