

Department of Economics

Programmes: B.A./B.Sc Economics CBCS Regular

Program Specific Outcome

PSO1: The students will be provided a well-founded education in Economics

PSO2: The structured curriculum will support the students with a sound academic development that will provide our students to prepare for further studies and career with economics. This includes, teaching jobs, bank P.O. Clerical jobs in banks, other competitive exams like UPSC exams and APSC exams.

PSO5: The students are given an opportunity to update themselves with the recent trends in economic developments

PSO6: A structured teaching plan with different modes of experiential learning like drafting questionnaire and conducting primary survey, preparing write ups; participative learning ways and problem solving avenues to learn the different modules in the curriculum

PSO7: Two value added course on computer basics and Mathematica, and Basic statistics in Research Methodology with MS Excel and SPSS to complement the regular curriculum with related skills